The night began at home.

Before the clubs and festival stages, there was a turntable at home. At eleven, Fer Cass learned to mix hip hop on vinyl beside her father, a lifelong DJ. Those early hours gave her timing, patience and a deep respect for the moment one record becomes another.

In 2018 she began building her professional path in electronic music. Date by date, the booth became the place where discipline met instinct. Her live journey now spans 31 destinations across Mexico, including the official EDC Mexico 2026 lineup, Formula 1 Mexico City's Heineken Stage, Jardín Secreto, Pachamama, Dunas de Bilbao and SAWE.

Arabic House sits at the centre of her identity. House structure, Afro percussion, organic textures and Middle Eastern melodies give her sets a warm, focused and immediately recognisable pulse. That same language carries into releases through Tibetania Records and the 2025 Fer Cass remix of El Sombrero.

Fer Cass approaches every room with attention and intent. She is now available for selected bookings in Dubai, Europe and international destination venues, bringing a clear sonic identity, proven live discipline and production experience to each stage.
